Ebook Details:

Review: A book that is at once a brutal look at men who've been to war and come back and a fascinating text about what they did and why they got their tattoos. None of the ones illustrated in this very finely done volume were the product of a drunken night and an available tattoo parlour. This is deeply personal and shows the loyalty of men not only to whatever...

Description: For many servicemen, the battle is over, but the ink lives on. Thousands of soldiers have chosen to commemorate their military service through tattoos, a custom as old as war paint itself. Yet military tattoos go far beyond the usual anchor and eagle clichés, and are often as complex and varied as the military experience. For the first time, documentary...
